 Home, Furniture, Completely Lost
House At Rosedale Valley
 Gutted By Fire Last Week
 Mrs. George Bahler of Home, Valley received news to the shock and later when trying to recover assembled belongings of her home in Rosedale Valley Monday afternoon of the flames, but the fire, which carried on the truck was soon extinguished. Fire men, however, were caused from the fire and several hours later the firemen were seen to be in the process of removing the remains of the house.
 The house was a two-story structure, built in 1910, and was a fine example of the architecture of the time. It was situated on a large lot, and was surrounded by a well-kept lawn. The house was completely gutted, and the only remains left were the charred remains of the structure.
 The cause of the fire is not yet known, but it is believed that it was caused by a faulty wiring system. The fire started in the kitchen, and spread rapidly to the rest of the house. The firemen arrived within a few minutes, but were unable to save the house.
 The loss is a great one, as the house was the family home for many years. The family is now living in a temporary home, and is trying to recover their belongings. The insurance company is handling the claim, but it is expected that it will take some time to settle.
 The fire was a tragedy for the family, and the loss of their home is a great blow. The firemen did their best to save the house, but it was too late. The fire was a reminder that fire is always a danger, and that it is important to take precautions to prevent it.

CHURCH HALL

The fire broke out around 4:30 p.m. at a home on 10th St. and 1st St., east of a neighbor's home, where Mrs. Baker was sleeping. Mrs. Baker, who was in the house at the time, said the fire was first noticed but the flames had advanced too much to be seen in a neighbor's house.

Lansdale fire department's truck sped to the scene, and firefighters began to pump down the flames.

Walled and Coated
Stolen From Unlocked, Unattended

A motor residence 1250 and one on 10th St. east of 1st St. were stolen at 10:30 p.m. from the home of Mrs. Baker, who was in the house at the time. The fire was first noticed but the flames had advanced too much to be seen in a neighbor's house.

Mr. and Mrs. Prohary and family are living temporarily in the dormitory at the college.

Life employers, for instance, in times, it's a must to own life insurance. It suggests that life insurance is a responsibility. After all, it's not to replace income, but to ensure that the family can live. It's a responsibility to ensure that the family can live. It's a responsibility to ensure that the family can live. In fact, anyone who knows that a man owns life insurance regards him with added respect. They know that it represents one of the most important assets any man can have. Yet perhaps the most important effect of giving him life insurance is on the policyholder himself. It gives him a sense of achievement. For in no other way can he create such a valuable estate for so little in so short a time. So life insurance can do more than provide financial security for your family and yourself in later years. It also influences people in ways that help you succeed!

So The Cities Have Trouble Too!

MURKIN and confusion are in the air over the province's new water conservation program. Apparently now it is the cities that are being asked to conserve water. The change was made by the city council, as principle, and the matter has been referred to the city council.

But the entire water-conservation program is being put on hold until the city council has decided on the matter. The city council has decided to postpone the program until the city council has decided on the matter.

New News . . . But No News of Them

ANANDA is to have newly designed bank notes in the near future. The new bills, which will be issued by the Bank of Canada, will begin to replace the current ones by September of this year.

According to information received by the province, the most noticeable feature of the new design is the picture of the reigning monarch, the Queen on the right hand side of the face of the note, instead of the left as at present. This new position, it is explained, will be the result of the change in the design of the note.

The new position also permits a better arrangement of lettering. The new design is to be issued by the Bank of Canada, which will be the result of the change in the design of the note.

Around the Clock . . .

By One of the Hands

Every now and then, a person gets backed up on a conventional clock. The hands, which are supposed to be perfect, suddenly stop. This is usually due to a loose screw or a broken spring. The hands will not move until the clock is repaired.

This happened to the clock of the city hall. The hands stopped at 12:00. The clock was repaired and the hands moved again.

The clock of the city hall is now working perfectly. The hands move again and the clock shows the correct time.

We are indebted for a number of the historical material in this section to J. B. McFarlane, former school principal at Earlsdale, and now teacher at Lacombe. Much of the information contained herein came from a university thesis recently written by Mr. Brown.

Blackfalds First School Class Conducted in '94

Every celebration of a school's birthday is a milestone in the history of the community. Blackfalds, as a village, has a proud record of educational progress, and its 50th birthday is a fitting occasion to look back on the progress made in the past half-century.

A new four-room school was opened there in 1904, and an additional three rooms added to the grounds this year when a primary school was moved in to provide fully needed classroom accommodation.

Students come to Blackfalds from both east and west, while high school students from the area are transported to Lacombe for their studies. Progress continues as that more school accommodation will be required at Blackfalds next year to meet the demands of the rapidly growing school population.

Today's picture is vastly different from that of 80 years ago when the first school was opened at Blackfalds. A check through old school records shows that Miss Grogg was the first teacher at Blackfalds, and was paid $100.00 a month salary. In 1904, when the first school was opened, the first teacher was paid $100.00 a month salary. In 1904, when the first school was opened, the first teacher was paid $100.00 a month salary.

This Building Houses Oldest Established Business in Blackfalds

The above building houses the oldest established business in Blackfalds - J. A. Martin and Son. Mr. Martin Sr. who is extremely well known throughout central Alberta, started the business here in 1917, and has successfully carried it since that time. At the present time, Martin is combined to a hospital in Calgary. His friends and acquaintances in Blackfalds, Lacombe and district attend to his stores values for a speedy recovery.

M. P. Allen, postmaster of Blackfalds, was seen at the door of Blackfalds post office in the photo taken last week. Mr. Allen, who has been the Blackfalds post office for over 20 years, is the son of J. V. H. Allen, who had been postmaster for 22 years.

Waghorn P.O. Later Became Blackfalds

Village of Blackfalds - now known as Blackfalds - was first started on the spot (the North-West Territories) as "Waghorn P.O."

The old post office, named after its first postmaster, Walter Waghorn, was situated along the old Elkhorn River before the railroad was built. Mail was transported over the old wagon trail route between Calgary and Edmonton, and delivery was often late and unreliable.

The original post office building, which served that area in the early days, was named by David Landry, and was used as a garage on his farm. One side of the building was built on the site of the old Elkhorn River.

Mr. Waghorn served as postmaster until 1915, in which year Lawrence Bailey was appointed to his position. Mr. Bailey served of the only about two years, when J. V. H. Allen took over the post office. Upon his retirement last year, Mr. H. Allen was appointed to the post office.

Blackfalds - Back About Year 1906

The village of Blackfalds was first started in 1906. The first house was built at the corner looking north, and Blackfalds was a general store, and a large group of settlers from different parts of the world had moved to the spot.

Blackfalds settlers will remember the old "Ward store" which was operated at the time by a storekeeper and some more settlers.

MACDONALD'S BRIEF

THE CALVERT SPORTS COLUMN

By Elmer Ferguson

That Grey Cup bid of last week may be the last of the season for the Lacombe Grey C's. The team, which has been in the lead for some time, is now in a precarious position.

It is a couple of years since the team reached its peak in 1962, when it won the Grey Cup. Since then, it has been a struggle to maintain its position.

There are several reasons for this. One is the lack of depth in the backfield. Another is the lack of experience in the front line.

There will be talk of more, that such a gathering had great advertising value for the city involved. Don't be that way. Every city concerned in thinking in hockey great years of the economy, without overlooking the fact that the city involved in such a gathering had great advertising value for the city involved.

'65 DODGE V8 and 6's

BIGGEST CAR IN THE LOW-PRICED FIELD

More than a foot longer, broader wheel and lower—years ahead in inspired styling—new in everything but name—that's the daring, new Dodge for '65! You'll soon see new trend in motoring in its long, slim lines and clean, fast surfaces that give it an exciting "sage-for-action" look. Inside, intricate new interior features lie in perfect harmony with exterior contours—and literally breathe excitement and luxury.

Dodge's a dramatic power story, too, for the '65 Dodge offers a great new V-8 and two dynamic 6's. And Dodge power, responsive to your slightest command, can be harnessed in PowerPak[®], range of all automatic transmissions.

Learn the whole exciting story—see the daring new Dodge on display at your Dodge Dealer's name.

New "Horizon" Windshield Seen on New Dodge

A low, massive, dovetail grille and Chrysler Corporation's new horizon full wrap-around windshield are two highlights of the new Lowared look styling for Dodge Crusader, Regent, and Marlin models in 1965. All three series offer new power windows, power floor and power rear seats on cylinder steering and the Dodge Marlin even has four door sedan in almost all options except the completely new 1971 Dodge V8.

To Be Absorbed by Lacombe Board of Trade and Agriculture

Lacombe Agricultural Society To Be Disbanded at Year End

Lacombe Agricultural Society, one of the oldest organizations in town, will be disbanded this year and its assets turned over to the Lacombe board of trade and agriculture.

The agricultural society was first formed about 20 years ago with the express purpose of promoting an annual agricultural fair here, but in practice, all agricultural activities within the town.

But the society has fallen on lean times during the past 20 years. Unable to spend a fair of reasonable size, when organized in the fall, the society was forced to "curtail" the society members have tried to promote other forms of agricultural activities, but in three years, it has held only one fair and no other agricultural activities.

Many reports of the agricultural society are being received, but the organization was disbanded at year end.

Men's Best Friend is "Daisy"

For the last six months it has been like living at Santa's house for four-year-old Gary Cronin of Kamour, Ont. Gary, who has his pet dog, Daisy, has been living at Santa's house, which is filled with toys and gifts. Gary has been living at Santa's house since then. "Daisy" has been like a "dog" relative in the Cronin home, having the run of the house and almost as big as the boy's room. Although he is only about six months old, "Daisy" weighs around 100 pounds and seems to be thriving on his diet of grain, hay, salt, and, yes, the electrical cord which he likes to chew.

Directed to the holiday season

Lacombe's new rink is the fourth rink to be built in the town. The first rink was built in 1900 and was a simple wooden structure. It was used for hockey and other winter sports.

The last rink, completed in 1980, was destroyed by fire in 1982. The new rink is a modern structure with many improvements over the old one.

The purchase of fixtures and furnishings for a building the size of the memorial centre is a considerable task and a great deal of thought and planning went into the purchase of such items for this institution, basement and kitchen.
To accommodate the crowd, expected to use the main cafeteria, 1,000 chairs were purchased. Over 500 of these chairs will be placed in the main hall, the remainder in the kitchen and in the restrooms.

Hall Plans Started In '45
Plans for the construction of the memorial hall were started in 1945, and the town is now in the process of completing the building. The hall is to be a two-story building, with a main hall, kitchen, and various smaller rooms. The construction is being supervised by the town engineer, and the estimated cost is $100,000. The hall is to be a permanent structure, and will serve the town for many years to come.

Congratulations

New Regulations Suggested to Reduce Highway Accident Rate

With highway death and accident rates mounting as all provinces of Canada, authorities everywhere are considering new traffic regulations to decrease the appalling toll. One agency, a committee from the Ontario Legislature, after examining and studying statistics collected in Canada and the U. S., has made extensive recommendations, some of which may be adopted by many provinces. Most of the suggestions in that province under 21 have issued preliminary findings and that province over 21 has requested to take new driving tests and that province over 21 has requested to take new driving tests and that province over 21 has requested to take new driving tests.

MASSEY-HARRIS-FERGUSON MACHINES
TRACK-TESTED FOR DURABILITY
FIELD-TESTED FOR EFFICIENCY
TESTING - TESTING - TESTING
Yottling is never-ending on Massey-Harris. Track testing goes on day and night, winter and summer at the Massey-Harris-Ferguson Test Track. Tractors and implements are checked with electronic equipment for stress and strain analysis. They are endurance tested for ability to stand up under long usage and are given severe shake-down tests over the bumps to check resistance to breakage.
Steel, paint and other materials are analyzed and tested in the factory laboratory to insure that they meet requirements and specifications - careful check is kept on foundry castings - inspection departments make constant assembly and run-off tests on production machines.
Field testing is a constant year-round activity of the engineering divisions of Massey-Harris-Ferguson. Machines are sent south in the winter time and follow the harvest north until freeze-up to give new models as much work in the field as possible. Machines are tested under many varied conditions for ability to do their work well, for ease of handling, for economy of operation, and for capacity to do a good job. Well designed, well built and thoroughly tested Massey-Harris and Ferguson machines offer outstanding features in modern equipment. Your local dealer will be glad to give you full particulars.

Winter Closed Monday, May 13, National Holiday Tomorrow day will be celebrated as Memorial Day, May 14, a national holiday in Canada. The weather is expected to be sunny with some storms and high winds, peaking in the afternoon. With the prospect of another long holiday week end, traffic is expected to be heavy on the roads.	Veto Artificial Ice And Storm Sewer In one of the most important decisions made by the Council of the Town of Leamington on Monday afternoon the $14,000 town sewer to be laid, and deflected to the south, was approved. The town engineer, Mr. J. H. WHERE DOES THE DOLLAR GO?

Everyone likes to keep track of the money he earns.

At Imperial Oil, accountants keep close tabs on every dollar the company receives. Auditors and government tax people double check. Of every dollar of Imperial's income last year...

About 52 cents went to purchase new machinery including crude oil (we pay freight charges out of this too).

Roughly 30 cents went in operating and administrative costs, including the wages of Imperial's 13,000 employees.

10 cents went in taxes to federal, provincial and municipal governments. (This did not include provincial road taxes.)

About 4 cents went back into the business to help replace worn-out equipment and provide for future needs.

About 4 cents went in dividends to the company's shareholders.

The people

What a profit do you think

LACOMBE, ALBERTA, THURSDAY, JUNE 2, 1953

Graduation Exercises Are Held

On Friday, May 20 a capacity crowd witnessed the graduation exercises of thirty-five graduates of Lacombe High School.

Rev. S. T. Nelson offered the invocation followed by the singing of "The Lord's Prayer" by Jim Mahabett (Graduate). Ken Decker gave the salutatory address. An appropriate selection for the occasion "Upon Graduation" was rendered by the Landels Sisters, Joan, Joyce and Margaret. A very interesting class history was given by Don Patrick and Don Love. The class prophecy was read by Eric Hayne and Yvonne Michman.

The main address for the evening was delivered by the Rev. Don McIvor. He stressed the importance of right choices in the lives of the graduates. These were the choice of a life philosophy, choice of a life partner and associates, and the choice of a life's profession. He encouraged the graduates to have high standards and ideals and to let nothing turn them away from their goals. Laverne (Miss) Dickson aptly responded to Mr. McIvor's speech.

Presentation of caps was made by Mr. Cyril Fawcett, Mrs. H. B. Fawcett and Miss Shirley Lawrence. Mr. A. R. Patrick introduced Graduate Laverne Boulogne as Valedictorian and presented her with the Reader's Digest Award. The chairman for the evening was Wes (Chuck) Collins and the pianists were Mr. Keith Wright and Miss Joyce Nelson. A parade of musical selections were performed on the vibraphone by Mr. W. Johnson of the L.H.S.

The Annual Graduation Ball was held immediately after the exercises.

Laverne Boulogne Gives Valedictory

Mr. Chairman, Teachers, Fellow Graduates, Ladies and Gentlemen:

At last the great day has arrived, the day of our graduation. For months we have felt little thrills go through us at the thought of this event. In no short little thrills changed into a great shock when I learned from Mr.

Patrick that I was to be valedictorian. I vaguely knew by then what that involved, and I did not think it so pleasant at first, because I am not used to addressing people in this manner. In a mood of despair I told one of my friends "I'll take the honor of it, and I'll let you make a speech." But of course that was not feasible in life we have to learn to accept the responsibility with the pleasant thing. Therefore I gathered enough courage to go. When sometimes we forget about this principle, our teachers have to remind us of it. I have always had a feeling that they were pushing us in the right direction and, according to their many signs, our class was very hard to push. In Dutch there is an expression which, literally translated, says "They have chased us behind the pants." As you can picture, this means that they frequently used us to work harder. Often a threat was necessary to emphasize to us our responsibility. One word, "Laverne," could fill us with awe. This was "June" "By the time June comes along . . . etc." Those threats were needed, if not always appreciated. Therefore, since it is my privilege to speak in the name of my class, I should like to express our sincere thanks to our teachers for what they have done and are still doing for us. Without their help and guidance we would not be graduating this evening. Their never slackening energy, their willingness to work for us and their readiness to give advice whenever needed, have raised our admiration and respect.

But we did not have to work continually, there were also many breaks in the form of entertainment. The active Lacombe Students' Union provided us with many surprises, from station activities to Christmas programs. Besides, many other things, which were not directly related to our course of study, were organized and have developed our along practical lines. In my opinion there are also necessary. Not all books, neither is the most erudite scholar always the most successful in life. It is our later life we find ourselves well equipped with versatility and self-confidence, we can proudly say "Lacombe School has helped us to achieve it."

This graduation program is an extension of far-seeing. Within a few months we, graduates, will leave the school for good. Then we stand alone; alone in this sense that each of us has to form his own life. Some of us will continue our studies in University, others will begin earning our own livings. With these graduation caps on our heads, we look as if we own the universe, but, I can assure you, deep in our hearts we feel humbled and difficult. The little children who leave the warmth and security of their homes for the first time. We quarrel at the thought of parting. Having gone through so many things together, we feel a throbbing pain at the thought of breaking all the ties of our school. We are, going to miss the time that we were advised to sit straight and to pay attention, or the time that we played a very funny trick on one of our classmates. We are going to miss the time that we worked, laughed and played together. From now on we will be considered grown-ups and will have to act as such. However, no matter where we will go or what we will do later, we will always hold our heads high and our proud. "We received our education at the High School of Lacombe."

Solutatorian

KEN DITZLER

Another of this year's grads who had the honor of giving the salutatory at graduation exercises. Ken was an outstanding student, receiving the Lacombe Lions special award as well as other scholastic and athletic honors.

I fully realize that a great honor has been bestowed upon me because I am actually a newcomer in this school. I was so new that, when I came to Lacombe, after having skipped a few years of school, I had almost forgotten what school desks looked like, and . . . felt like: To me they seemed very hard. However, I was not used to the new situation Mr. Fawcett, our biology teacher, would have expressed himself like this: "She has adapted herself fairly well to her new habitat." Of course, this biological term usually applies to animals, but a sometimes fits people too, especially young people. I can assure you, however, that I never would have felt so much at home here if the teachers and my classmates had not been so sympathetic. Their friendliness and co-operation have made this year one of the most pleasant in my life.

Naturally it has been also, a year of working. It is a universal principle that people have to work in order to reach their

The students' union presented awards to the outstanding boy and girl athletes. Ted Lemmer, who was active in Basketball, Football, Hockey, Baseball, and Houseleague, took the award for the boys. Beth Callins who was active in Basketball, Volley Ball, Houseleague, Track and Badminton was presented with the award for the girls.

The Lacombe Globe then presented awards to the three top editorial writers in 1964-65: Neilie Tungen, grade 10; Bryan Corbary, grade 11; David Hopland, grade 12.

SPECIAL ALBERTA GOLDEN JUBILEE SECTION

THE LACOMBE GLOBE

Lacombe, Alberta, Thursday, August 11, 1955

ALBERTA GOLDEN JUBILEE

THIS edition of The Lacombe Globe has been a special one, prepared to commemorate and recognize Alberta's Golden Jubilee Year. It was back in 1905—a short 50 years ago—that this province became a self-governing region. Much has happened in the intervening five decades. This edition is intended to be neither a history nor an all-embracing report of every important event of these last 50 years. Rather it is meant as a tribute to the earlier residents of this town and this district who pioneered this great country... who settled the soil and raised their families in a virgin country... who set up their own schools and their own hospitals... who improved their lot, year by year, and who are continuing to work toward even greater improvement.

It is only natural that Lacombe figures prominently in the early days story and history reported in this edition. But the story of Lacombe is a story of the district as a whole... indeed, it is a story paralleled by almost every centre in the province. The background of Lacombe is the story of Bentley, of Blackfalds, of Tees and Alix and Mirror and Clive. It is the struggle for existence and the struggle for the amenities of life.

It is to these pioneering men and women and their families that this special section is dedicated.

Dedicated To Serving The Community, and The Comfort of the Travelling Public

We at Lacombe Hotel join Albertans in welcoming the observance of Alberta's Golden Jubilee... and extend congratulations to the old timers and pioneers of this area whose vision, enterprise and vigor in the past have made possible this joyous celebration in 1955.

—And in keeping pace with Alberta's great development, the Lacombe Hotel is proud to serve the community and travelling public with modern, comfortably furnished rooms, well appointed dining lounge, coffee shop, and up-to-date licensed premises—truly a fine Alberta Hotel...

OWEN PROMISES TO KEEP PEOPLE IN

As we look about us on this, the 50th Anniversary of Alberta, the growth of our Province is readily apparent. In a scant half century, the population has jumped from a mere 125,000 to 1,200,000.

Many of these Albertans are Canadian born and bred—many have come from distant lands to build a better future in this country of promise and opportunity. The skills and knowledge they have brought with them have proved an invaluable contribution to the economy of Alberta.

Today we stand on the threshold of a new era. Looking back, we proud to salute those early pioneers who labored so many decades to establish the Province. Looking ahead, we see a happy, united people achieving the goal of even greater progress and prosperity than we enjoy at this time.

This year Alberta is celebrating her Golden Jubilee, and her people are joining together to observe their great birth in the Golden Province of the West.

What Might Have Been . . . But There Was No Oil

This is comparatively modern history. But it was an important time in Lacombe's history with the development of the oil industry in Alberta. The district shows there was a strong possibility for drilling in the fall of 1914, at a site only four miles northwest of Lacombe. In early 1915, the first well was completed. It was a dry hole but there was a good flow of oil. There is no telling how much oil would have been going on in Lacombe that day if the first well had been successful. The oil industry in the immediate district — there is just too heavy concentration of it at the ground level. Lacombe, however, slightly further north, would have been a good place for the oil industry. There has been about 150,000 barrels of oil produced in the area and all exploration has been intensified this year in the general Calgary area.

Die of 103, Herman Ziehl, Grand Old Man

In a compilation of Lacombe's 50-year history in this jubilee year, the late Herman Ziehl deserves special mention. The death was recorded on March 27, 1955, at his 103rd year. He was one of Alberta's few centenarians, prior to his passing. He resided in the Lacombe district with his son, Charles, 10 miles northwest of Lacombe, and his family depended on him for help. He was a very kind and helpful man and loved by all who knew him. The old timer was amazingly active for his age. At 98 years of age, he made a trip to California and for a portion of the winter, January, travelled by car for his last winter trip. He died at 103, and made it a daily routine after his return to Lacombe to gather wood and haul loads of water. There was one anecdote about the centenarian, after he had planted some of the vegetable garden and was sitting on an elevated seat. When the green dwarfed through the ground, some of the rows proved to be covered, and the family good-naturedly chided him about getting old. "That's all right," Mr. Ziehl replied with a smile to his wife. "This row may not be straight, but you get more seeds in that row." "I was with regret that The Globe and other newspapers in the province and throughout the world had carried his death at the wonderful age of 103."

He Was 100 Years Old in 1949

Many of them have had to overcome hardship, pioneer our country, risk their savings in building their dream and out of the future.

Some of them, dependent on wages and salaries, have been in a most constant financial straits from time to time. In a most constant financial straits from time to time. In a most constant financial straits from time to time.

Main Street in Bentley, 1907 — A Cluster of Buildings, and a Handful of Citizens

Bentley as it was 1907 and Bentley as it is today is the interesting study suggested by this old-time picture. The number of buildings were much more than when the streets were just a few years old. Today, this at the day is depicted above! Today, this at the day is depicted above! Today, this at the day is depicted above!

Who will recognize the buildings in the heart of the village today? First, a B. E. Williams hotel, and lively bar, and next the Methodist temple. On the brow of the hill left to the right, or south side is the house occupied by Frank Thery from 1902 to 1911.

J. P. McPherson's post box and post-office building, and next the dwelling and drug store built by Dr. W. G. Evans in 1905. The building beyond this dated out to be a Church, but finished up as a residence.

From where the photographer stood to get this picture, there are two buildings on it and built until 1900.

Here is Mr. Thery's strong command to the left not shown. There are the Palmer and Thery store, and the H. W. Smith blacksmith shop.

The Williams Hotel and all buildings erected on that side of the street, with the exception of the passenger, were destroyed by fire in 1917. The Alexander Hotel and passenger next the same date about two years later.

The Methodist Church, another prominent landmark, does not appear in this picture as it was built until 1900.

Here is Mr. Thery's strong command to the left not shown. There are the Palmer and Thery store, and the H. W. Smith blacksmith shop.

We Couldn't Have Operated On Our Present Scale . . . 50 Years Ago

Now, in Golden's time, we wouldn't have been able to bring today's fast, efficient dry cleaning business to this area . . . technological improvements are partly responsible for this . . . but it is the settlement in the district . . . the roads leading to all parts of the area, which makes our service possible . . .

So it is that we have personal and sincere reasons for extending a hearty "thank you" to the pioneers and old timers of this area for their vision and their vigor in breaking in a new country.

On behalf of our staff and our agents who have brought you a modern dry cleaning service for the past 10 years, we extend hearty congratulations to these hardy men and women of 50 years ago.

Fifty Years of Progress . . . in Alberta Has Been Matched by Fifty Years of Progress . . . in Lacombe!

50 Years ago . . . private gas. Today — Look at Lacombe's Facilities:

WATER SYSTEM:

A modern pressurized system, serving all parts of town, and supplying water at reasonable metered rates the year 'round.

SEWER SYSTEM:

A town-owned Sewer System which grills the town, and empties into a modern, recently completed sewer disposal plant.

NATURAL GAS:

Over 11 miles of gas lines bring this modern, economical fuel to every part of the town at reasonable rates.

PLUS THESE SERVICES:

A well equipped volunteer fire brigade results in large fire insurance savings; 24-hour police service; cement sidewalks; all-weather streets and lanes, cross-cross the town; health unit services for children and adults; modern school facilities; modern library, recreational buildings and ideal golf course.

No Wonder People Agree:
"Lacombe's a Pleasant Place to Live"

We are proud to be situated in this modern service of town. Proud, too, to have played our part in the development of our town which, through the years, has added the modern development of the services as a whole.

Living as close to Lacombe, we often have sight of the tremendous strides which have been made by this town during the past 50 years. From a barren town site, Lacombe has become one of the largest towns in the province . . . and an established business and shopping centre.

Close to 100 businesses cater to the needs of the town and district residents, numerous 14,000 people. An educational, hospitalization and municipal government centre. Lacombe has grown rapidly during the last "golden decade".

It's growth as a shopping centre for an increasingly larger area is easy to understand. Look, at these facts:

1. You can purchase your every need in Lacombe from modern stores run by automatic, round the clock men.
2. You can actually — and this has been so — buy cheaper in Lacombe. Every business has found overloads, and regardless of volume business, their overhead costs are always there . . . and have to be met. Overhead costs in Lacombe are lower, in many instances, than in other and centers of the province.
3. Further, in Lacombe, although somewhat crowded at times, is parking near the problem which is in all other centers. Really there is a shortage in Lacombe here in north more than one — or at the most two — blocks away from the business is within 10 minutes.
4. Friendly, courteous service, with well displayed merchandise makes Lacombe a natural, hotel and increasingly important shopping centre.

— You can get any service you wish . . . in Lacombe —

Time of Lacombe's Pioneers in Provincial Jubilee Year, 1905

These men were long officials in 1905, the year the province of Alberta was formed. From left to right, they are: J. D. Blinn, secretary-treasurer of the town; councillors A. Upshurst, John McLean, and A. M. Campbell. From right to left, councillors H. M. Trimble and J. W. Johnson.

J. D. Blinn, secretary-treasurer of the town at that time, was also editor and publisher of the Lacombe Advertiser, Lacombe's first newspaper. He is now located at Buckhorn Bridge, Alta. Andrew Upshurst first came to this district around 1884, and farmed for a few years at Chagrin before moving to Lacombe to open a general store under the name of "A. Upshurst and Co." Mr. Upshurst left Lacombe for the Pacific coast early in the 1920s, and died in Vancouver about 25 years ago.

John McLean came to Lacombe on July 1, 1888, and operated a real estate business here in the early days. He moved away to Lacombe some years ago. A. M. Campbell is well known throughout the district, having operated a large departmental store here until the time of his death about fifteen years ago. H. M. Trimble was one of Lacombe's first realtors, and operated a real estate business in conjunction with his law practice. He first came to Lacombe from Salt Lake, and served as secretary of the Lacombe school district at the time the first school was built in the town. Mr. Trimble passed away at Calgary recently.

J. W. Johnson, who died in Edmonton some years ago, resided in the Buffalo Lake district in the early 1890s before moving to Lacombe proper. He was prominent in many businesses in town, and his name still appears in the present day "Martins and Johnsons" Hardware store here. M. J. McLean, mayor of the town in 1888, was the proprietor of M. J. McLean general store here. He left Lacombe in 1898 to become the first deputy-treasurer of the province of Alberta. Mr. McLean resided in the capital until his death about two years ago.

W. F. Puffer was one of Lacombe's last long-time residents. He came to this town around 1885, where he operated a meat and breakfast business, and purchased land for Burns and Co. for many years. He was the first licensee of the hotel for the time-being Lacombe constituency in the newly formed province and stamped the district of this riding by horse and buggy.

60th Anniversary Gala Occasion

Another anniversary was being celebrated in Lacombe today as the 60th anniversary of the town's founding was marked by a gala occasion. The first was the child of Mrs. Frank Ford, who was the daughter of the first settler to bring back to life for the settlement of the people operating in the area. A number of actual settlers were present in the town of the settlement.

Alberta had a population of 116,000 people, not including the Indians. But the energy and boldness of these original pioneers paved the way for the Alberta of today.

Some cynics claim that the inventive genius of the 20th century has been responsible for the advances in Alberta's last 50 decades.

But no one can deny the fact that any country is only as great as its people—and it was the people of Alberta—yes and of Saskatchewan, too—that have made the west what it is today.

LACOMBE, ALBERTA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1955

A Picture of Lacombe, Taken in the Summer of 1901, Looking North and West From Present Site of the C.P.R. Station

The above scene is the picture which greeted the eyes of newcomers to the town of Lacombe around the turn of the century. In 1901 when the above picture was taken, was a bustling, thriving frontier village. It consisted of several frame buildings, most of them unpainted, streets which were assembly muddy or dusty; and a few scattered groups of wooden shacks.

This picture was taken toward the north west from atop the first grain elevator built by the Bradshaw-Hart Co. by W. E. "Black" Haines, well known early-day photographer.

Along the front of the picture runs Railway Street, while the (horizontally) extreme street at the right hand corner and cutting west through the center of the photograph.

The large upper-story building in the left foreground is the site of the present Lacombe Hotel. The building, in 1901, was the immigration office, through which the flood of incoming future citizens was handled. This building later became the Al Hotel, then the Metropolitan Hotel and still later, the Adelphi Hotel, operated by A. T. Ivins.

The small building to the right of the immigration office at Railway Street was a small drug shop where initially resided the hotel business, while the occupied building in the right foreground was C. T. Dyer's general store, which was later purchased by the late A. M. Campbell, well known former Lacombe merchant.

by the first Bell Telephone Co. office and a drug store; and third, Lacombe's first newspaper.

As the eye travels up the street starting from the left foreground, the first building (on the north side of the street) is the former Pictorial leather shop, now the site occupied by Fraser-McDonald Agency. Next is the building which housed the lumber yard operated by Don C. Giesler, and now the site of the Imperial Lumber Co. Ltd.

Starting at the right hand corner, going west and running west along 30 avenue can be seen M. J. McLeod's general store. Across the street, where the first Bank now stands, was the Victoria Hotel, while on the west corner of the same block, centre above, is a building, house, constructed and operated by William Martin.

stood where the bus station now stands, was Fortuna's livery barn, popular rendezvous of all travellers coming to Lacombe by horse and stage.

On the north-west lot at the same corner is one of the few buildings still standing. When this picture was taken, the building housed the former Presbyterian Church, and is still occupied for religious purposes by Grace Chapel.

Another building still standing, although added to since this picture was taken, is the present Church Hall, then Lacombe's Methodist Church. This building can be seen behind and slightly to the right of the old Victoria Hotel.

The then-new school is the left background which, before being demolished in 1951, served by turns as town office and library before reverting to school use again a few years ago.

Counting rank one of the first school-shedding racks between Calgary and Edmonton, whose large white roof is seen in the extreme background of the above photograph.

E. E. Scott's barber shop, on today a 30 street, is seen immediately north of the old Victoria Hotel. The Scott still plans his trade as barber in Lacombe, and was most helpful in identifying many of the buildings shown in this picture. He first came to Lacombe in the year 1880.

Early Pioneer Build School at Gulf Lake

The old Gulf Lake log school built in 1893, was one of the first schools to be erected in the district west of Lacombe. It was located about 14 miles north of the town, on property now owned by Lacombe Creamery.

The school was built by the pioneer families of the district. The first teacher was Mr. J. W. Taylor, who was also the first schoolmaster. The school was built of logs and was a one-room schoolhouse.

Congratulations

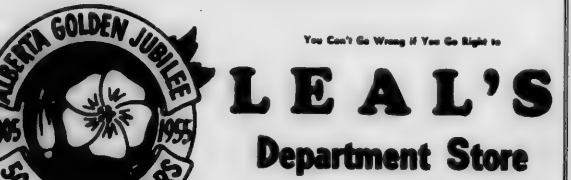

To the settlers and pioneers of this district who laid the frame work around which the present province of Alberta has been built... and has prospered greatly during the fifty years which have passed since incorporation.

It is a source of pride to us that our town has served residents of this district faithfully and well for as long as Alberta has been a province. Formerly operated by F. E. McLeod, who took over the business from the famous W. E. Lord & Co., this place of business has been a shopping center for all members of the family through one generation and into another. Such a long business in business can be maintained only by providing satisfaction, fair prices and fair dealings with the residents of this district... for while unscrupulous methods have cheapened goods in the years since Alberta became a province, the integrity and good business ethics without which no business can survive are an unchanging factor.

It is on this policy of faithful service, fair prices and honest values that we stake our future... for we realize that it is by adherence to this policy that our business, our town and our province has prospered during the past fifty years of progress. With this policy in mind, we are pleased to remind our friends and customers once more that "You Can't Go Wrong, if You Go Right to Leo's!"

From Livery Stables to Service Stations

Alberta has changed greatly since its inception... Modern, faster methods of transportation... gas and diesel motors have replaced old dabbies.

But let us not forget that these changes were made possible in this province by the pioneers who broke the land, and in the face of adversity, laid the foundation for the growth of Alberta—from a population of 116,000 to well over 1,000,000 today.

The Old Settler at Gull Lake About the Turn of the Century

It has been said, with a great deal of truth, that the whole countryside hereabouts was built up with Cummings' lumber from this old sawmill. The camp was located on the east side of Gull Lake, and as one of the first men to the district it was also one of the first to establish the district by his work on a large scale. Cummings, Sr., the father, was in charge of the mill, and he had also helped him, Cummings, Jr., and Cummings, III, and Cummings, IV.

Old-Fashioned "Steamer" Pines the Waters of Gull Lake, 1901

This picture, obtained from Cummings' children, shows the first boat which was to ply the waters of Gull Lake back in 1901.

While it was originally built for business purposes, the "Steamer" was known as a social gathering place. Many were the building parties which blossomed on its decks. Whenever the "Steamer" returned, a party and a boat excursion around the lake lasting into the early hours of the morning. It didn't seem to matter how late the party was, for the boat was always ready to go. The boat was powered by a small engine and a few men. The boat was used for many years, and it was in the hands of Cummings' children that it was used for many years. A mid-summer day for Bentley was the arrival of the first train on the Lacombe-Bentley railroad on November 28, 1917. The 18-mile stretch of track was four years in the making, a dream of time due in part to the enterprise of the first mayor of Old timers will remember some of the scenes of Bentley, they were nearly 60 years ago. It takes a great people to develop a great province . . . and the citizens of Alberta are no less than the best of their people.

When Alberta Became a Province, September 1, 1905

A large crowd assembled at Edmonton's fair grounds on Sept. 1, 1905, to attend the official ceremony for the formation of Alberta. In the foreground, Mr. W. L. M. Macleod, premier minister of Canada, addresses the audience while the new flag of Alberta is unveiled.

How Alberta Officially Became a Province

At the beginning of the twentieth century, western Canada had long been of its brother nations to unite to be considered something like the "North West Territory". This situation continued right up until February 21, 1905, when the Dominion of Alberta Act was introduced in the Canadian parliament.

This bill provided for the incorporation of Alberta with British Columbia and the province of Saskatchewan. The bill was passed by the Dominion of Alberta Act, which provided for the incorporation of Alberta with British Columbia and the province of Saskatchewan.

The Dominion of Alberta Act, which provided for the incorporation of Alberta with British Columbia and the province of Saskatchewan, was passed by the Dominion of Alberta Act, which provided for the incorporation of Alberta with British Columbia and the province of Saskatchewan.

Yes, the year after the Province of Alberta was born, Lacombe and district had all the modern conveniences available to the residents of Lacombe and district by a firm under the name of Brown and Johnson.

To the old-time residents and pioneers of this district, we extend our congratulations upon the celebration this year of Alberta's Golden Jubilee . . . a celebration made possible by these early settlers.

Reminiscence and His Church

Every week, across the nation's churches a chorus is heard, a chorus also to sing with enthusiasm in a dense congregation and sounding as though it had a dozen voices. They turn up on CBC radio, "Songs of My People", a program devoted to the music of many nations and designed to bring to new Canadians memories of the land they left. The chorus is led by Ivan Bonamant and consists only of a handful of singers located in the regular person's mind.

The chorus "We" put in the Lacombe high school choir in 1955, which will be presented tomorrow afternoon in the auditorium. A program will be presented with an exchange of gifts following.

The teachers of the high school and their regular staff party in the school last evening. The last night started at 7:40 p.m. with a program following.

The high school group will be held next Monday, December 26. The program began at 8:00 p.m. at the high school auditorium, and always serves as a fine occasion for the former graduates to get together for a reunion.

1955 Current Taxes
Due and Payable
By Saturday Noon

As no one has been paid for payment of current taxes reports above the town office shows a busy time.

Up to yesterday noon, secretary Frank Lacey reported that $18,875 had been paid in taxes. The remaining $18,875 on the list as of $18,875. Since this week is the last of all taxes were paid earlier this week, the lack during the past couple of weeks has been heavy.

Local taxpayers have until December 21 to pay current taxes which are now due. The town office has been busy to accept payments up to closing time Saturday, 12:00 noon.

After that time, a $5 penalty will be added to taxes which will then have become "past due."

The Lacombe Globe's lost-and-found department files are filled with articles, many of which are not that residents are not as careful as they once were.

Many other possessions, however, remain "repaired," and are not picked up. The list of unclaimed items continues to grow, and at this annual inventory time the following is a partial list:
